

Family Practice Law Firm Helps Clients Navigate Through Trying Situations

Weinstein Lindemann & Weinstein

Weinstein Lindemann & Weinstein represents clients involved in complex and sophisticated family law matters. This boutique firm offers paramount experience and knowledge in family law, as well as a deft touch in dealing with the concerns of its clients.

No one wants to become involved in a prolonged and draining divorce and the multi-level toll a divorce has on the family. However, navigating through the process with the least amount of trauma and obtaining the best results for their clients is a priority of the attorneys at Weinstein Lindemann & Weinstein. They know how to accomplish this goal and protect the best interests of their clients every step of the way.

Weinstein Lindemann & Weinstein is strong on strategy, evaluating family law issues, and charting the most advantageous course for clients, which may mean utilizing negotiation, mediation, arbitration or litigation. Jeffrey P. Weinstein says, "Strategizing is an enormous part of what we do." Determining how best to proceed is a decision that may have a pivotal impact on the valuation and distribution of marital assets, as well as the amount and length of support payments.

Divorces do not only involve financial ramifications. Custody matters, including interstate and international relocation with children, are among the firm's other signature areas of service. Says Weinstein, "Custody is where law and science do not really meet. It is our obligation to give each mom or dad the opportunity to be the best parent each can be."

Weinstein is quick to spotlight the firm's legal team. "I have great partners – Cynthia Borsella Lindemann, Donald Schumacher, Angela G. Kim and Evan R. Weinstein," the elder Weinstein says. "Great associates, too – Rachel Zakarin, Lydia S. LaTona, Jonathan H. Blonstein and Lisa Baldesweiler." In addition, a former Presiding Judge of the Family Court, the Honorable Melvin S. Whitken, serves as "of counsel" to the firm for private mediations and arbitrations, which is another service offered by the firm for alternative dispute resolution. The firm practices at the Trial and Appellate levels throughout New Jersey.

Weinstein says the best advice he gives clients, whether in a custody conflict or a dispute over the financial aspects of a divorce, is that once you decide to proceed, resolve it as quickly as possible. "We work hard, and our work is bordered only by our ethical responsibilities and our imaginations, both of which we cherish."
